

Pierre Battah*Partner*Evolution Consulting Group

Pierre Battah (BBA, MBA, CHRP) is a specialist in management and human resource management. His practice is focused on teaching, facilitating and especially providing counsel to individuals and organizations. Pierre has held senior positions with some of Atlantic Canada's leading employers and was an assistant professor of management at Mount Allison University's Ron Joyce Center for Business Studies as well as an award winning management development instructor in human resource management, leadership, organizational design, change management and organizational behaviour. Formerly a managing partner of Atlantic Canada's leading Human Resources firm, he has been advising organizations large and small in all sectors since 1996.

Fluently bilingual and an accomplished public speaker, he can be heard on both CBC Radio One and on Radio Canada Acadie, as a contributor on business and workplace issues.

He is a committed community volunteer and he also leads trio carte blanche, a light jazz ensemble heard and seen at various community, fund raising and private functions and events.

The Evolution Consulting Group is a management consulting company specializing in Human Resource Management with practice areas in hr strategy & counsel, organizational effectiveness and learning.